A close-up shot focusing on the right side of a person's body. The person is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved garment. A small portion of a blue and white striped shirt is visible at the top left corner, suggesting another person is partially in frame. The background is dark and out of focus.

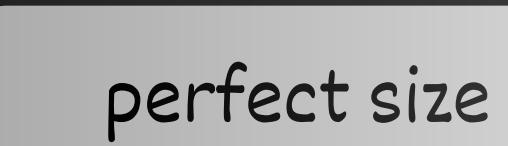

A circular portrait of a young man with dark, wavy hair and sunglasses, smiling at the camera. He is wearing a patterned, short-sleeved button-down shirt. The portrait is set against a black background with two white circles framing the sides.
